

PRIVACY, COOKIES AND PERSONAL INFORMATION PROTECTION POLICY

Privacy Statement

The purpose of this web page is to present and group several companies under a single identity, providing only links to their respective websites.

Personal data

No personal data is collected directly on this site. There is no contact form, no user area, and no account creation.

Cookies and audience measurement

The site uses audience measurement cookies to collect statistical information on page traffic and usage (pages viewed, visit duration, browser type, etc.).

This data is collected anonymously and does not allow for the personal identification of visitors. It is used exclusively for the purpose of analyzing and improving the site's content and performance.

Visitors can accept, refuse or configure the use of cookies at any time via the consent banner or their browser settings.

Links to third-party sites

This page contains links to websites operated by third parties. By clicking on these links, the user leaves this site and accesses platforms subject to their own privacy policies and terms of use.

We are not responsible for the data collection or processing practices implemented by these third-party sites.

Safety and responsibility

No personal data is transmitted to third parties through this site, apart from statistical data strictly necessary for audience measurement.
